4.0 Definition of Terms

Compensatory Overtime Credit (COC) refers to the accrued number of hours an employee earns as a result of services rendered beyond regular working hours, and/or those rendered on Saturdays, Sundays, Holidays or scheduled days off without the benefit of overtime pay.

Compensatory Time-Off (CTO) refers to the number of hours or days an employee is excused from reporting for work with full pay and benefits. It is a non-monetary benefit provided to an employee in lieu of overtime pay.

5.0 Guidelines

5.1 Employees are required to render forty (40) hours of work in a week, subject to the work schedule adopted by the agency. In the exigency of the service, employees may be required to render services beyond regular working hours.

5.2 The Head of Office shall determine the need for overtime services. In this regard, the Office concerned shall issue an office order specifying the date and time for rendition of overtime, and its purpose.

5.3 Overtime services may be authorized for the following activities:

- a. completion of infrastructure and other projects with set deadlines when due to unforeseen events the deadline cannot be met without resorting to overtime work;
- b. relief, rehabilitation, reconstruction and other related work or services during calamities and disasters;
- c. work related to school graduation/registration where the additional work cannot be handled by existing personnel during regular working hours;
- d. work involving the preparation for and administration of government examinations, including the prompt correction and release of results thereof where existing personnel are not adequate to handle such work during regular working hours;
- e. seasonal work such as budget preparation and rendition of annual reports to meet scheduled deadlines;
- f. preparation of special/financial/accountability reports required occasionally by central monitoring agencies like the Congress of the Philippines, Office of the President, Commission on Audit, Department of Budget and Management, and National Economic and Development Authority;

- j. services rendered by drivers and other immediate staff of officials when required to keep the same working hours as their superiors; and
- k. such other activities as may be determined by the head of agency.

5.4 Computation of COCs

The COC is expressed in number of hours, computed as follows:

5.4.1 For overtime services rendered on weekdays or scheduled work days:

$\text{COC} = \text{number of hours of overtime services} \times 1.0$

5.4.2 For overtime services rendered on weekends, holidays or scheduled days off:

$\text{COC} = \text{number of hours of overtime services} \times 1.5$

5.5 Accrual and Use of COCs

5.5.1 Each employee may accrue not more than forty (40) hours of COCs in a month. In no instance, however, shall the unexpended balance exceed one hundred twenty hours (120) hours.

5.5.2 The COCs should be used as time-off within the year these are earned. The unutilized COC should not be carried over in the ensuing year, hence, are non-cumulative.

5.5.3 The COCs shall be considered as official time for the following purposes:

5.5.3.1 compliance with compensation rules relative to the entitlement to PERA, Additional Compensation, year-end benefits, and other benefits received on a regular basis; and

5.5.3.2 computation of service hours for entitlement to sick and vacation leave credits, and step increment due to length of service

5.6 Limitation on the Use of COCs

5.6.1 The COCs cannot be used to offset undertime/s or tardiness incurred by the employee during regular working days.

5.6.2 The COCs earned cannot be converted to cash, hence, are non-commutative.

5.6.3 The COCs will not be added to the regular leave credits of the employee. Hence, it is not part of the accumulated leave credits that is paid out to the employee.

5.7 Effect on Personnel Movement

5.7.1 In cases of resignation, retirement, or separation from the service, the unutilized COCs are deemed forfeited.

5.7.2 In case of detail, secondment or transfer to another agency, the COCs earned in one agency cannot be transferred to another agency, nor could the employee receive the monetary equivalent thereof.

5.7.3 In case of promotion, except when promoted to a position not qualified to receive overtime pay under previous issuances, the employee will retain his or her accrued COC.

5.8 Issuance of Certificate of COC Earned

An employee who has earned COC shall be granted a Certificate of COC Earned (Annex A) duly approved and signed by the Head of Office. The certificate indicates the number of hours of earned COC by the employee in a month. The certificate would be issued at the end of each month.

5.9 Availment of CTO

5.9.3 The employee must first obtain approval from the head of the agency/authorized official regarding the schedule of availment of CTO.
