HIRING GUIDELINES FOR TEACHER I POSITIONS EFFECTIVE SCHOOL YEAR (SY) 2015-2016

1.0 BACKGROUND AND RATIONALE

The Department of Education (DepEd) recognizes that the success of any education system greatly relies on the competence of its teachers. Hence, one of the primary issues the Department aims to address through its comprehensive implementation of the K to 12 Basic Education Program is the need for highly competent teachers in public elementary and secondary schools. The program plans to achieve this objective through significantly improving professional standards that will better ensure that the teachers hired are able to substantially contribute to the development of lifelong learners. Furthermore, the hiring system is also set to provide opportunities for the absorption of all qualified kindergarten volunteers and LGU-hired teachers into the national plantilla.

Faithful to the merit and fitness principle of the Civil Service Doctrine of the Constitution and DepEd's continuing thrust to enhance the quality of basic education, these hiring guidelines are hereby promulgated for Teacher I positions consistent with the pertinent provisions of existing laws, rules and regulations effective School Year 2015-2016.

The rater shall make brief notes to support his or her observations and judgments about the individual's skills as related to the listed competencies and to make a rating, from Not Fully Acceptable (NFA), Fully Acceptable [FA), to Exemplary (E) for each competency, using these standards and equivalent points:

Exemplary (E) 5 points	Fully Acceptable (FA) 3 points	Not Fully Acceptable (NFA) 1 point
Applicant's response contained many, if not all , of the target behaviors. His/her responses indicate well-developed skills and aptitude for that competency, which would most likely lead to job success. The person's responses are of superior quality for this job.	Applicant's response covered some of the target behaviors, but not quite at the level that would be ideal for that competency. Still, the quality of the person's answers leads you to believe that he/she would be successful with some additional exposure and/or training .	Applicant's response contained very few of the target behaviors. Either the behaviors he/she discussed were not at, or even close to . the level indicated in the target behaviors, or the person did not give you enough information for you to have confidence that he/she has that competency at the level needed for success.

The number of points attained for each of the three (3) listed competencies (Teaching Ability, Classroom Management, School Fit) shall be added and then divided by fifteen (15). The quotient shall then be multiplied by 0.10 or 10%. The product shall then be multiplied by 100.

Example: Sum of points attained for the three competencies = 9
 [(9/15) x .10] x 100 = 6
 Score for Interview = 6 / 10

A. Lesson Planning and Preparation		4 points	3 points	2 points	1 point
1. Selecting Instructional Objectives	Teacher's objectives reflect high level learning related to curriculum frameworks and standards; they are adapted, where necessary, to the needs of individual students, and permit practical/ workable methods of assessment.	Teacher's objectives represent valuable learning and are suitable for most students in the class; they reflect opportunities for integration and permit practical/ workable methods of assessment.	Teacher's objectives are of moderate value or suitability for students in the class, consisting of a combination of objectives and activities, some of which permit practical/ workable methods of assessment.	Teacher's objectives represent trivial learning, are unsuitable for students, or are stated only as instructional activities, and they do not permit practical/ workable methods of assessment.
2. Mapping Coherent Instruction	All of the elements of the instructional design support the stated instructional objectives, engage students in meaningful learning, and show evidence of student input. Teacher's lesson or unit is highly coherent and has a clear structure.	Most of the elements of the instructional design support the stated instructional objectives and engage students in meaningful learning and the lesson or unit has a clearly defined structure.	Some of the elements of the instructional design support the stated instructional objectives and engage students in meaningful learning, while others do not. Classroom routines and procedures have been established, but function unevenly or inconsistently, with some loss of instruction time.	Classroom routines and procedures are partly inefficient, resulting in the loss of much instructional time.

The number of points attained for each of the fifteen (15)listed components shall be added and then divided by sixty (60).The quotient shall then be multiplied by 0.15 or 15%. The product shall then be multiplied by 100.

Example:

Sum of points attained for the 15 components = 45

$$[(45 / 60) \times 0.15] \times 100 = 11.25$$

$$\text{Score for Demonstration Teaching} = 11.25 / 15$$

Applicants for K to 3 who will perform Demonstration Teaching using the mother tongue of the locality where the school being applied for is located shall be given an additional +5 points on top of the score they have obtained.

For applicants who may be assigned in a school located in an IP community and/or serving IP learners, the Division Selection Committee shall give due recognition to an applicant's knowledge and skill in integrating indigenous knowledge, culture, and skills into the teaching-learning process (as demonstrated in the above aspects).
