SUBJECT : Invitation to Attend the Basic Education Report 2023

DATE : January 23, 2023

In reference to the call for the review of the K to 12 Program and the directive of the President Ferdinand Marcos Jr. towards the Department of Education to finalize its review of the education program of the Philippines, the Vice President and Secretary Sara Z. Duterte has pledged that the Department will present a report to the nation on the state of basic education in the country on January 30, 2023.

In view of the foregoing, the Department of Education will be conducting the Basic Education Report (BER) 2023 to present the current state of basic education in the country, as well as the plans and initiatives of the Department of Education to fulfill its mandate. Through the BER 2023, the Department will be launching its education agenda and call to action.

As the BER 2023 will be discussing important issues, challenges, projects, and plans of the Department, the event shall be conducted in-person on January 30, 2023, at the Sofitel Philippine Plaza Manila. All Regional Directors, Schools Division Superintendents, School Heads, and designated representatives are enjoined to attend the said event punctually at 1:00 PM, as the program will start at 2:00 PM. All attendees are expected to wear Business Professional attire.

Attendees must confirm their attendance at <https://bit.ly/BER-2023-Pre-Registration-Form> before January 30, 2023 to facilitate the seating arrangement and other security details. Traveling, transportation expenses, and accommodations shall be charged to your respective local funds, subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

This invitation shall serve as the Travel Authority for the attendees to said event.

For more information and other concerns, you may contact Atty. Vjisyl Guadaluiver, by telephone number (02) 8633-5313, (02) 8631-8492, or by e-mail at vjisyl.guadaluiver@deped.gov.ph.

For reference and compliance.
