Messengers of Peace

International Day of Peace 2023 Guideline (A reference document for NSOs action teams)

1. Background

A UN resolution established the International Day of Peace in 1981 to coincide with the opening of the UN General Assembly. The first Peace Day was celebrated in 1982 and was held on the third Tuesday of September each year.

In 2001, the General Assembly unanimously voted to designate the day as a period of non-violence. The United Nations invites all nations and people to honor a cessation of hostilities during the Day, and to otherwise commemorate the Day through education and public awareness on issues related to peace. In 2002, the UN General Assembly officially declared September 21 as the permanent annual date for the International Day of Peace celebration.

To inaugurate the day, the United Nations Peace Bell is rung at UN Headquarters (in New York City). The bell is cast from coins donated by children from all continents except Africa and was a gift from the United Nations Association of Japan, as "a reminder of the human cost of war"; the inscription on its side reads, "Long live absolute world peace". (Ref: <https://www.un.org/en/observances/international-day-peace>)

2. IDP 2023 Theme: Actions for Peace: Our Ambition for the #GlobalGoals

The 2023 theme for the International Day of Peace is Actions for Peace: Our Ambition for the #GlobalGoals. It is a call to action that recognizes our individual and collective responsibility to foster peace. Fostering peace contributes to the realization of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and achieving the Sustainable Development Goals will create a culture of peace for all.

In 2023, as we reach the halfway point in implementing the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), the International Day of Peace coincides with the SDG Summit (18-19 September) to commemorate this significant milestone. The SDGs are designed to advance our progress towards building more peaceful, equitable, and inclusive societies, where fear and violence have no place. However, the realization of these goals depends on the active involvement and contributions of various stakeholders, including the 1.2 billion young people currently alive.

We urge you to respond to the United Nations' call for action by advocating for peace, addressing inequality, taking decisive measures to combat climate change, and upholding and safeguarding human rights.

3. Messengers of Peace for International Day of Peace

Scouts in Asia-Pacific Region are vigorously involved in peace actions since the launch of Messengers of Peace Initiative in 2011. Since 2015, the International Day of Peace has been celebrated by almost all National Scout Organizations (NSOs) in the Asia-Pacific Region, taking the opportunity to engage young people and leaders in peace actions and inspiring them to become active global citizens. In many NSOs, peace actions and doing good deeds are spread for the entire month of September.

4. Objectives

- 4.1 To commemorate the International Day of Peace through active involvement of Scouts in their communities
- 4.2 To inspire and support Scouts to talk on Peace Actions with other Scouts, non-Scouts, and community members
- 4.3 To raise awareness on issues in their communities and the importance of everyone in the undertaking actions towards development of peace culture
- 4.4 To actively contribute to Sustainable Development Goals through community service, community development, development education initiatives based on the context/need of the respective community

5. Action Period

1-30 September 2023
Gala Celebration – 21 September 2023

6. Participants

- 6.1 Scouts of all ages: executing the activities and interacting with community members
- 6.2 Non-Scouts: understanding peace, undertaking peace activities with Scouts, and committing to continue to be Messengers of Peace

7. Planning and Guidance

- 7.1 NSO to assign a national team to plan and execute the celebration/activities at national level and extending support to local leaders who will organize, plan, coordinate, implement and report local activities happening around the country.
- 7.2 Entrust coordination responsibility to NSO MoP Coordinator or as may be befitting who will be responsible to support the national and local teams in planning and advancing the initiative at national level through its local structure, supporting the promotion through social media channels and directly with Scout groups with the involvement of Scout leaders.
- 7.3 Ensuring involvement of the public in undertaking actions and documenting and reporting
- 7.4 Submission of reports to Asia-Pacific Support Center by 30 September 2023 so that it can be compiled and be shared globally. This is with the intention that Scouts contribution be recognized at appropriate platforms.

We are also looking forward that within the week if we get the complete data, we can summarize the total number of accomplishments on a single day by Scouts e.g.*

- How many young people attended the peace activities nationwide?
- How many saplings planted in a day?
- The largest number of youth participation in peace run/walk? Etc.

8. IDP Activity Ideas Collection

There is a vast selection of activity ideas for International Day of Peace which can be chosen and applied addressing the 2023 theme for the International Day of Peace, "Actions for Peace: Our Ambition for the #GlobalGoals".

As Scouts, let's act towards "Creating a Better World" in which everyone makes significant contributions towards the attainment of the SDGs, ultimately fostering a culture of peace that transcends borders and benefits all individuals.

Below are some of activity ideas:

8.1) Peace Video Clip

To provide social media platforms where Scouts can share their video clips, for example:

- What peace means to individuals and their own peace perception speech
- Their peace activities serving in the communities
- Tell personal experiences and stories on happiness they find in helping others
- MoP Dance Music Video (with their own choreography or unique dance moves)
- Scout talents such as singing inspiring songs with the theme of peace, play music, or any other performances that would provoke thinking in the viewers

This can be done by individuals or even could be organized as talent shows or competitions at group, sub-national or national levels.

Everyone can post their videos:

- on <https://sdgs.scout.org/> with hashtag #IDP2023 or
- <https://www.facebook.com/groups/mop.apr/> with hashtag #IDP2023

8.2) Peace Picture and Pledges

- 8.2.1) Are you into photography? Then take some pictures that reflect any expression, ideal or messages of peace. Share them in social media (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Pinterest, etc.) with a nice message that includes the word SCOUT. Pictures must be original.
- 8.2.2) Pictures can also be taken in "selfie" style displaying a pledge to build awareness that peace culture is a daily effort with small acts of kindness. It is important to recognize that "Peace starts with me".

Step 1: Take a selfie showing commitment towards peace actions in line with the theme "Actions for Peace: Our Ambition for the #GlobalGoals".

Step 2: Think about own declaration of commitment towards peace, to express what you would do starting today to start building peace.

Step 3: Post your selfie and your declaration of peace. Share on <https://sdgs.scout.org/> and other social media platforms.

Some suggested activities (you may be innovative based on local needs)

8.3) Live Interview or Webinar

A series of live interviews or webinars on how we can contribute to "Actions for Peace: Our Ambition for the #GlobalGoals" and be used as a step towards the International Day of Peace (21 September).

2. What is the meaning of peace for you?
3. How can you share your knowledge with your community?

8.4) Peace Talk - on radio/podcast

If we can reach more, we can inspire more. Contact your local radio station asking for a slot to talk about "how Scouts contribute to peace/SDGs through service". Invite people to join our global effort to promote Peace Culture with small acts of kindness towards creating a better world.

Step 1: Make a list of radio stations with numbers and contact persons

Ensure you have complete record of blood donated on the day in your NSO and is included in the report*

8.12) Scout MoP Reporter

What about other people? Do they know they are also entitled to create peace in the world? How are they engaging themselves in contributing to Sustainable Development Goals? As MoP "Reporter" you may interview non-Scouts and community members with video to raise awareness about the issue. Some criteria for your interview:

Step 1: Introduce yourself as a Scout and what is the purpose of the interview, and how will this be used.

This could be organized as a group or individually.

Young people (Scouts and Non-Scouts) plant saplings in a place (home, school, public garden) and take care of them until fully grown. It is highly recommended that each one plant a sapling in your own kitchen garden, rooftop, nearby available place, and those staying in multistorey building can plant in the balcony or terrace.

Step 1: Choose a place and right kind of trees

Step 2: Plant the trees in the suitable area (suggested by the local authority if you are doing mass planting)

Step 2: Arrange for his/her registration

Step 3: Take some video or photo in action for the new member.

Step 4: Share the video or photo in sdgs.scout.org and social media.

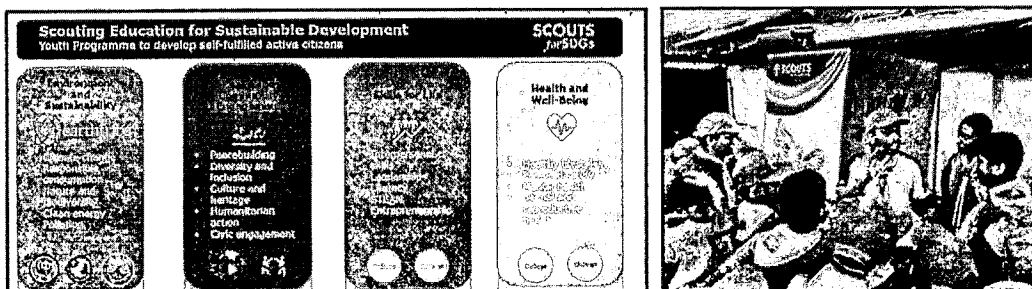

This can also be done by individual Scouts with the slogan "each one recruit one".

- Step 3: Take some video or photo in action for the new member.
- Step 4: Share the video or photo in <https://sdgs.scout.org/> and social media.

8.17) Peace Run

This is trendy amongst young people and an effective way for creating awareness.

- Step 1: Promote participation through pamphlet, poster, social media and mass media (the team can also hire a local event organizer who is specialized in walk/run events).
- Step 2: Choose the proper place for Peace Run for greater visibility to the public.
- Step 3: Ensure to take necessary permission/permits to organize the run as per local requirements
- Step 4: Take good photos during the Run.
- Step 5: Share your photo on <https://sdgs.scout.org/> and other social media.

Ensure you have complete record Peace Run data on the day in your NSO and is included in the report e.g., what was the advocacy topic for the run, how many young people attended (if by age great), number of kilometers, other highlights etc.*

There are several agencies who are professional in conduct of such activities, NSOs can explore this

9. Promoting IDP Activities

One of the most important tasks of MoP is to INSPIRE others to do good deeds. Therefore, the International Day of Peace Promotion should be done through these platforms such as <https://sdgs.scout.org/>, Messengers of Peace Asia-Pacific Region Facebook group and your own national administered social media sites (Facebook pages/groups, YouTube, Instagram, etc.) for uploading projects and stories.

10. Reporting

For reporting, you may please use the report forms attached to the circular. Ensure that all activities held in celebration of the International Day of Peace are well documented and reported.

There are two forms, one for NSO to summarize all the activities that took place in the IDP Celebration throughout the country either at unit level or at national level which is exclusive for the MoP NSO Coordinator.

The other form is designed to report each activity/event. NSO can use it to circulate to subnational and grass roots for them to submit this report forms to National that will help NSO to prepare the summarized report. NSO can also give this form to each of the in-charge of National Event/Activity to fill-up, so all national activities have the detailed information available with NSO.

In submitting to APR Support Center, NSO needs to send the summarized report form. And if NSO wishes, may also attach all the event/activity forms.
